THE BEARS MAKE A RAID AND ARE NOT

The White-Pearsall-Conner Crowd Passive-The Grand Trunk Fight to be Carried On by the Vanderbilts - Money Tight - Mil-lions to be Spent for Pensions - The Fall-by the Vanderbilts — Mosey Tight—Millions to be Spent for Pensions—The Palling from 1% to 1% Per Cent.

Events favored the bears this morning, and they went for the market in lively fashion. For some reason or other the White-Pearsmall-Connor party offered little opposition to the raids which, accordingly, were more effective than of late.

Tight money is the favorite theme of the bears who say that between now and the close of the year there will be such a scarcity of funds that liquidations in the markets for securities will be imperative. They point to the steady outflow of currency to the west in support of their theory. On the list of Dec., however, the Treasury will begin the payment of some $8,000,000 on account of interest on the 4½ per cents, and the disbursements during that month for pensions will run high up into the millions. Some houses, nevertheless, deem it prudent to provide themselves for a period that will cover the annual settlements, and hence time loans are firm at about 6 per cent.

The refusal of the Pennsylvania to go any deeper into the contest between the American lines and the Grand Trunk and decased beef came like hot shot into the bull ranks. The action of the Pennsylvania throws the burden of the fight on to the Vanderbilts, the managers of which, all statements to the contrary, not withstanding, cannot regard the situation.

The vanderbilts all there is to it. The workingmen understand my position in this matter. I am anxious to continue the work until the work unt close of the year there will be such a scarcity of funds that liquidations in the markets for securities will be imperative. They point to the steady outflow of currency to the west in support of their theory. On the 1st of Dec., however, the Treasury will begin the payment of some $3,000,000 on account of interest on the 4½ per cents, and the disbursements during that month for pensions will run high up into the nillions. Some houses, nevertheless, deem it prudent to provide themselves for a period that will cover the annual settlements, and hence time loans are firm at about 6 per cent.

The refusal of the Pennsylvania to go any deeper into the contest between the American lines and the Grand Trunk and dressed beef came like hot shot into the bull ranks. The action of the Pennsylvania throws the burden of the fight on to the Vanderbilts, the managers of which, all statements to the contrary, notwithstanding, cannot regard the situation with relish. The Street is looking for new surprises in the trunk line fight and may get them before many days have passed.

Playing With a Pistol Likely to Cause the Death of a Scotchman in Newark.

NEWARK, Nov. 28,-The occupants of 3912 Clark street were startled yesterday by the reports of a pistol in one of the upper rooms. Mrs. Sherman, the landlady, hastened to the room and found Robert Donald, aged 35 years, with blood oozing from a wound on his left cheek about a half inch below the eye. George McCready, his room-mate, was trying to stop the flow of blood. Donald said that he had been shot accidentally by McCready while the latter was playfully handing a pistol. He was taken to St. Michael's Hospital. It is expected that he will die.

McCready, Donald and J. T. Monahan, Scotchmen by birth, had been at Mrs. Sherman's house since Saturday. Just before the shooting Donald said: "Let's all go off the keg until Christmas." This was agreed to, McCready then picked up a revolver belonging to Monahan and asked if it was leaded. Monahan replied that it was not. McCready then pointed the revolver at Donald, and in Mrs. Sherman, the landlady, hastened to the

ance in Second Avenue. Second avenue from One Hundred and Twenty-ninth to One Hundred and Twentyfifth streets, was a scene of considerable excitement at 2 o'clock this morning. The Elevated trains had stopped running an hour or more when man Stapleton saw a middle-aged German walking down the track. He started after the German, who thereupon ran and began yelling at the top of his voice for the police.

Windows flew open in every direction, and the people, awakened from their sleep, thought that some one had been badly hurt by a train. The money train came along, and a man on it concluded that thieves were trying to board the train. Drawing a revolver he threatened to shoot the fugitive and the watchman if they did not halt.
Two policemen reached the track and the German fell on it. He said that his leg was broken. An ambulance was summoned. The Doctor said that nothing ailed the man except too much whiskey.

The German was locked up. He gave his name as John Steiner, and said that he had no home. He was fined $5 by Justice Welde in the Harlem Court. No one knows how the man got on the track.
